RICHMOND, CAL., FRIDAY, AUGUST 6, 1915. NUMBER 164

MOOSE HERD CAPTURES CITY

Crack Drill Teams of Oakland Lodge Accompany Visitors; Big Class Initiated.

Richmond was invaded by the Oakland Moose last night. And those who were fortunate enough to be on Macdonald avenue around 9 o'clock saw some of the prettiest drilling ever seen in this city.

The Oaklanders came accompanied by their crack drill teams; the champion "white" company, under the captaincy of Captain C. A. Sullivan; drum corps, Captain Richard Davis; Company No. 1, Moose Defenders, Captain T. B. Simpson, and the band under the leadership of Captain Chas. Smith. The white drillers and the drum corps have never been defeated.

The teams marched and countermarched on Macdonald avenue, headed by the band.

A large class was initiated, the initiatory work being done beautifully by the Moose Defenders and the captains. A banquet and smoker followed. A feature of the evening's entertainment was the singing of several solos by Otto Keller, who was accompanied by E. Heidorn on the zither. The Oakland band played a number of selections and speeches were made by the visitors and members of the local lodge. The committee in charge of the reception consisted of E. Forwick (chairman), C. F. Donnelly and G. Martin.

The Oakland lodge extended a cordial invitation to all Richmond people to attend their picnic at Pinehurst, on the Oakland and Antioch line, August 29.

LOCAL GIRL TO SING IN GREEK THEATRE AUG. 29

Miss Lucille Kister, talented local vocalist, who has has been studying under Professor Pierson, will sing Sunday afternoon, August 29, in the Greek theater, Berkeley, under the auspices of the University of California.

A San Francisco orchestra will accompany her. Miss Kister has won a reputation with her art and musical circles of the bay district are looking forward to her appearance.

Miss Kister lives with her parents at 651 Sixteenth street.

MISS RUTH SOBY HAS BIRTHDAY

Little Miss Ruth Soby celebrated her 6th birthday yesterday afternoon in fine style, entertaining a score of her best friends at her home, 464 Fourth street. Games, music and refreshments were enjoyed.

Those present were Mable Milligan, Nonie Smith, Madge Mitchell, Jackie Smith, Dolores Schack, Ruth Soby, Laverne Pizzotti, Verna Parks, Thursa Parks, Dolly Covec, Holly Gebhart, Vincent Felfenthal, Stanley Bagnall, Bruce Parks, Mark Gebhart, Kenneth Tibbetts, Mrs. Zone Bagnall, Mrs. W. E. Soby, Mrs. J. Milligan and Mrs. Joe Pizzotti of Oakland.

News of the serious injury of her husband, Charles Fessenden, formerly connected with the San Francisco Rock Quarry Company here, suddenly terminated the visit of Mrs. Fessenden yesterday. She has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. L. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Fessenden live in Willits. What the nature of Fessenden's injuries are is not known here.

LADIES TO PLAN BAZAR.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Methodist church, at a meeting at the church this afternoon, will make plans for the holding of a bazaar. Committees will be appointed and a date and place decided.

SAY YOU SAW IT IN THE DAILY NEWS.

Assessment of $5000 is Paid by H. F. Brown

Success has been met by the commission handling the condemnation proceedings necessary to the widening of Twenty-third street north. Of the $28,000 worth of property it will be necessary to condemn to permit the widening of the street, less than $200 of this amount will have to be raised by the sale of abutting property.

The payment of one of the largest single assessments, that of Herbert F. Brown, was made at the city engineer's office yesterday afternoon. It amounted to slightly over $5000.

WOULD INCLUDE RICHMOND IN DISTRICT

A proposal to include Richmond, Stege and other Contra Costa towns in the public utilities district proposed in Oakland, has been made and such action is being backed by M. H. Stoner, who reported to the Public Utilities League at the last meeting that many local people are dissatisfied with water conditions. At present the district includes Oakland, Emeryville, Berkeley, Alameda, Piedmont, Albany and San Leandro. At the next meeting of the league in September, Clement H. Miller, chairman of the boundaries committee, will submit a proposal to include the Contra Costa territory mentioned.

BOULEVARD WORK STARTED BY THE M.I. CO.

Active work has been started on Cutting boulevard by the Municipal Improvement Company, 30 men being engaged in setting forms for the concrete gutters, curbs and sidewalks. This force will be increased to fifty or more Monday, which number will be maintained until the completion of the job, which Manager Ditzel stated would be within 90 days.

The work of laying the sewer pipes started Tuesday, and is being done on a $15,000 sub-contract by Eaton & Smith of San Francisco. This company is using an immense catapillar ditch digger, and are digging trenches 15 feet deep and in the parking space on either side of the street. Such a plan will obviate the necessity of tearing up the street when connections are to be made with the main sewers from the property abutting on the street.

MIDWEEK DANCES AT KOVE POPULAR

The dance given Wednesday night by the management of Kozy Kove was so successful and so well attended that hereafter the Wednesday evening dances will be held every week. An excellent orchestra is to be employed for these affairs. Dances are also held other nights of the week when the orchestrion is used.

FOOD SALE IS POSTPONED WEEK

So as not to compete with Richmond Day, the food sale of the Ladies' Aid of the First Christian church, which was to have been held Saturday, has been postponed until the following Saturday.

The food sale will then be held in a booth at Fischer's grocery store. The returns of the sale will be used to defray the current expenses of the church.

Oscar Lee, an active and popular Richmond boy, who lives in Thirteenth street, is now handling the local street sales for the San Francisco Call. Oscar is a hustler and will make good.

Hold Funeral of Mrs. Tullar from Residence

A host of friends of the late Mrs. Mary Tullar, better known and loved as "Grandma Tullar," attended the funeral yesterday afternoon, which was held from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Wyatt, 600 Ripley avenue. Rev. H. J. Loken, pastor of the First Christian church of Berkeley, preached the funeral service.

The remains will be shipped today to Sacramento, where they will be interred. Mrs. Tullar was a resident of this city for 13 years and a native of Norway. She leaves her daughter, Mrs. Wyatt and four sons, Nelse Lewis, Edwin Tullar, William Lewis and Mat Tullar.

S.F. LOSES IN R.R. FIGHT

San Francisco lost yesterday its fight in the Supreme Court to have maintained the stay of proceedings preventing the enforcement of the ruling that the municipal railways cars known as "C" and "D" have no right to be operated on the Outer tracks if Lower Market street.

Yeomen Planning for Day at the Exposition

Olive Homestead, Brotherhood of American Yeomen, last night entertained the bay counties committee for Yeomen Day at the Exposition on September 14.

Out of town people present were W. J. Elliot, state manager, and wife, Mrs. E. McGinnis, state chaplain, of Oakland, and husband; Mr. and Mrs. A. McDonald of Oakland; Albert Chisholmer of Vallejo, Burke Parrish of San Leandro, J. Jeffries of Santa Rosa, and others from different cities of the bay counties.

The committee from the local lodge for Yeomen Day is composed of the following: Mrs. Mattie J. House, Wm. L. Lane, C. N. Williams, Martin Hague, Mrs. J. K. Thomas, Mrs. Linnie Pierson, Mrs. Pearl Olds, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Coyer. The committee will meet in San Francisco August 14 to complete final arrangements for the program of the day.

The crack drill team from Minneapolis will initiate a class of 150 members in K. of P. auditorium, Fourteenth and Valencia streets, S. F., the night of Sept. 13, while a big informal ball will be held in the ball room of the California building the 14th.

Following the meeting last night a banquet and dancing were enjoyed.

The following committee arranged for the evening's entertainment: Mrs. Pearl Olds (chairman), Mrs. Mamie Dausey, Mrs. May Williams, Mrs. Edith Bryant, Mrs. Eunice Coyer and Martin Hague.

PETITIONS ARE SENT BY CLERK

County Clerk J. H. Wells yesterday completed the work of checking the names of the signers on the referendum petitions against the non-partisan election bill and has forwarded the same to Secretary of State Frank H. Jordan. The petitions, including the supplementary signatures, contain more than 500 names. August 7 is the last day on which the petitions may be filed with the secretary of state.

DAVIS FUNERAL HERE TODAY

The funeral of Harry J. Davis, San Francisco man, whose body was found at Point Orient Wednesday morning, will be held from the chapel of the Smallwood undertaking parlors at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The body will be buried in Sunset View cemetery.

Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock the inquest will be held.

BIG STREET JOBS NEAR FINISH

Soito and Castro Street Work Is Finished Almost at the Same Time.

Street work running into hundreds of thousands of dollars is nearing completion in Richmond. Probably never before, stated City Engineer H. D. Chapman yesterday, have so many streets neared completion at one time in Richmond.

Contractor G. W. Cushing yesterday finished the big Soito street improvement job, and almost simultaneously Contractor L. H. Page announced that the Castro street job was ready for inspection. Both of these streets are east of Twenty-third street and runs at right angles to it, and are adjacent.

Contractor McMaster reported yesterday that his Seventh street improvement job, between Pennsylvania and the Santa Fe viaduct, would be ready for inspection tomorrow. The Ransome Crummey company have just completed their second Cutting boulevard contract, and have notified the city engineer's office that they are ready for its acceptance.

JUDGEMENT IS GRANTED J. L. KENNON IN SUIT

J. L. Kennon was granted judgment yesterday by Judge McKenzie against Mrs. Grace L. Richardson, who sued for dissolution of partnership in the Kennon stationery and printing business, alleging that she had purchased half of the business for $100 in January, 1914.

When suit was first instituted by Mrs. Richardson several months ago, a receiver, Jack Williams, was placed in the Kennon establishment.

Probably the most sensational testimony given in the case was that of Williams yesterday. He testified that Mrs. Richardson had told him "that there were others who desired to put Kennon out of business among them the owners of the Record-Herald."

This testimony, the absolute victory for Kennon and his broad intimation last night that the case was not closed and that he would soon make public the "real reason for the suit," were the most interesting developments in a case that had aroused considerable local interest.

Judge McKenzie ordered Mrs. Richardson to endorse the $100 check, that Kennon had deposited in a local bank to cover his indebtedness to her and which she had refused to accept, over to Kennon, refusing Mrs. Richardson's petition to be declared a partner in the concern.

The case was tried before Judge McKenzie Tuesday, Wednesday and yesterday.

Mrs. Richardson was on the stand most of the day Tuesday. T. Park Jacobs and G. W. Hensley were other witnesses for the plaintiff. J. L. Kennon, Jack Williams, who was appointed received of the place when Mrs. Richardson filed suit several months ago, and Lee Soward, barber, were witnesses for the defendant Wednesday.

Mrs. Richardson offered to compromise Wednesday, but the defense refused to consider it.

ELECT ROBERTS A DELEGATE

Frank Roberts, popular member of the Sons of St. George Lodge, has been elected a delegate to the Grand Convention of the British Order, to be held in Oakland August 16 to 26. L. H. Gale was initiated at the last meeting of the local lodge. Plans were made for participating in the celebration of British Day at the Exposition August 18. Members of the lodge will attend the Exposition in a body on that day.

Germans in Possession of Warsaw; Retreat Across Vistula, Wrecking Bridges

PETROGRAD, Aug. 6.—An official communication issued tonight says: "In the Ivongorod district, the Russians have crossed to the right bank of the Vistula, blowing up the bridges behind them.

LONDON, Aug. 6.—The Germans are in possession of Warsaw, capital of Poland and the third largest city in the Russian empire. Bavarian troops entered the city this morning, having taken successively the Blonie lines and the outer and inner fortresses of the city itself, the Russians only fighting rear guard actions to allow their main army to make its escape.

While to the Bavarians, commanded by Prince Leopold, has fallen the honor of taking over Warsaw in the name of the German Emperor and his consort, who are expected to make a state entry within a few days, the real conquerors are the troops fighting under Field Marshal von Hindenburg, along the Narew river to the northeast; to the Austro-Germans, who crossed the Vistula to the south of the city, and to the armies of the Austrian Archduke, Joseph Ferdinand, and the German field marshal, Von Mackensen, which are advancing northward between the Vistula and Bug rivers.

The Russians are fighting desperately to check the progress of these four armies; but they are being steadily pressed back, which made the longer occupation of the Warsaw Polish salient a hazardous undertaking.

BERLIN (via wireless to Sayville), Aug. 5.—Warsaw, capital of Poland, and chief city in the Russians' vast battle line, fell today before the German onslaught in the world's greatest military campaign. Berlin is celebrating what is declared the biggest victory of the war.

The main forces of Grand Duke Nicholas, commander-in-chief of all the Russian armies, escaped. This was indicated in the official announcement, which said that only 22 officers, 4840 men and 17 machine guns were captured. To cut off the Russian forces in Poland and southern Russia is now the object of the Kaiser's lieutenants.

Well! What do You Think of This?

Something unprecedented in this city, and extremely unusual in any city, has been unearthed in the city engineer's office. No. It's not a scandal, but it is occasioning as much discussion.

It is something wholesome, encouraging and unusual.

In the recent opening of Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets, at the corners of Ripley and Clinton avenues, adjacent to the Southern Pacific rightaway, every cent of the assessments for the street work was paid, and was paid before it became delinquent.

AKED SCORES BILLY SUNDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—While "Billy" Sunday raged out of the city yesterday, hotly refusing to discuss Dr. Charles F. Aked's resignation from the Committee of One Hundred in protest against the employment of Sunday at the Van Ness Tabernacle, Dr. Aked toik his pen and produced an essay on the "Billy" Sunday gospel.

And that, briefly, is the situation, the Committee of One Hundred making their cue from their Exposition secretary, Dr. H. H. Bell, sat tight, refused to comment on Dr. Aked's resignation and said they considered the incident closed.

"I do not know," he says, "of any consideration in the world which would induce me to become a party to the buffoonery and blasphemy of a 'Billy' Sunday mission."

Dr. Aked indicates that he has never heard Sunday, but has kept close watch of his missions through his reported and authoritatively printed utterances. Here is a sample of the picturesque diction of the baseball evangelist that Dr. Aked disapproves:

"Cleopatra was a flat-nosed wench, who sailed up the Nile clothed only in sunshine and climate."

T.D. JOHNSTON MOVES AWAY

Richmond is to lose District Attorney Thomas D. Johnston.

Johnston has about completed moving to Martinez, where he has purchased a home on Main street. The residence was formerly occupied by A. J. McMahon.

The interior of the place was remodeled under the direction of Mrs. Johnston. Most of the furniture was packed and shipped yesterday.

TUNNEL ROAD TO BE COMPLETE BEFORE RAINS

The tunnel Walnut Creek highway will be completed before the rains set in. Meanwhile it is expected that work will begin on the Mt. Diablo boulevard, which will connect with the improved county highway at Alamo, swing east and north through to Mt. Diabloh Park properties, and thence through the Tassajara and Alhambra valleys, along the course of San Ramon creek and thence south, connecting with the state highway at Dublin in Alameda county.

County Surveyor Arnold has engaged an engineer of national repute to go over this proposed scenic route. The engineer will make a report very shortly as to the estimated cost. This stretch of highway will be built under a road district fund, to be voted on at a bond election. The district was recently formed. The date of the bond election will be set after the consulting engineer has made his report.

In building the county highway between Walnut Creek and the intercounty tunnel that connects Alameda with Contra Costa county, the engineers have cut down the grade of the Charles hill, near Lafayette, to 6 per cent.

Surveyors operated during the week along the highway between Bryant and Lafayette.

SLATON, IN S.F. TALKS OF FRANK

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—Former Governor John M. Slaton of Georgia, whose action in commuting the death sentence of Leo Frank, the slayer of Mary Phagen, was followed by mob violence, arrived here last night from Portland. He was accompanied by Mrs. Slaton, a beautiful woman of distinctly Southern type and manner.

The former executive was eager to give his views on the Frank case, and he spoke with a conviction and earnestness that left no doubt as to his position.

"In commuting the sentence of Leo Frank to life imprisonment, I acted solely from a sense of duty, and I would do it again ten thousand times if necessary."

SANITARIUM IN CANYON IS SUED

The exclusive Belgum Sanitarium, located in the depths of Grand Canyon, East Richmond, has been attached by C. S. Renwick of the Pioneer Electric company for $185, which amount Renwick claims is due him for the cost and installation of expensive electrical fixtures and appliances.

After refusing to pay the bill, which Belgum declares is exorbitant, Renwick filed suit in Judge Chichester's court in San Pablo to recover the amount. Monday keepers were put in charge of the place by Constable Moltosa and remained there until yesterday, when upon the filing of a bond by Dr. H. N. Belgum the keepers were removed.

The case is to be given a hearing in the San Pablo courtroom today. It is thought that a demurrer will be filed by Belgum's attorney and the matter will be laid over for a time. Attorney T. De Lap has been retained by Renwick.

Dr. Belgum stated last night that the business at the sanitarium was exceeding his expectations and that it was not on account of depression that the payment was no made. Several notable patients have received treatment at the sanitarium, he stated, and some are even now at the health resort.

The sanitarium is the large Mintzner residence that is located in the canyon.

CONCERT TONIGHT ON MACDONALD

The Richmond Concert Band will give its usual weekly concert tonight at Seventh and Macdonald avenue. An excellent program has been arranged. The next concert will be given on the west side next Friday evening. The program:

March, "Officer of the Day" (Hall); waltz, "L'Estudiantina (Waldteufel); "When You Wore a Tulip and I Wore a Rose"; "It's a Long Way to Tipperary"; Descriptive Fantasie, Visions of Salome (Lampe); "Somebody Loves You, Dear," trombone solo by Harry Young; "Songs of Scotland" (Lampe); "Simple Aveu" (Thome); Aubade Massinet; "Lucy's Sextette," a ragtime travesty on the sextette from Lucia (Alford); march, "Thunderbolt" (Brown).

C.R. SHANKS IN AUTO COLLISION

Colin R. Shanks, a foreman at the Santa Fe shops, residing at 517 Nevin avenue, was in an auto collision on San Pablo avenue, near Macdonald, shortly before midnight last night.

Shanks escaped without any bodily injury, but the machine was badly wrecked.

The driver of the machine with which he collided was said to be badly injured, but could not be traced by the local police following the accident. His machine was number 140261.

WHIST PARTY ATTRACTS MANY WHO WOULD AID CHILDREN TO SEE EXPOSITION TOMORROW

A very interesting feature of the Richmond celebration at the Exposition will be the stories of the time before Richmond was settled, by John H. Nicholl, who was a resident here in the late '50s.

Nicholl remembers when the San Pablo Guards, a cavalry company, were organized and drilled on the fields upon which years later Richmond was built.

W. T. Helms was busy yesterday issuing tickets for transportation and admission into the Exposition Saturday to the school children. Those children that cannot afford the 50 cents will be furnished with free tickets. All children are asked to bring lunch with tem.

ROY HITT, SOUTHPAW, VISITS OTTO DIETRICH

Roy Hitt, the southpaw of the Vernon Coast League team, was visiting Otto Dietrich here yesterday. He and Bill Burns are to leave today for a fishing trip in the mountains of Northern California.

S. F. AND "BILLY" SUNDAY.

"Billy" Sunday isn't faring as well in San Francisco as he did in Philadelphia. San Francisco doesn't seem to be very deeply interested in Sunday's burning hell, nor does his acrobatic, sensational style of oratory seem to thrill our transbay brothers.

In Philadelphia they flocked to hear him, to stagger down the "sawdust trail" and "get religion." In Philadelphia they paid him $50,000 in one night. They applauded his vulgarisms and his challenges to the devil.

In San Francisco they came to hear him to satisfy their curiosity. They wanted to see the preacher who took off his coat and waistcoat while preaching, they wanted to hear a sermon interspersed with slang and cuss words.

Yesterday Sunday left San Francisco in a rage. He shouted at reporters that he had nothing to say about the Dr. Aked incident. He was red in the face with anger. He stamped on the thickly carpeted floor of the St. Francis Hotel.

San Francisco is probably neither more wicked or more virtuous than any other city in the country of the same size.

Certainly it is not more wicked than Philadelphia.

But, in the light of the attitude towards Billy Sunday, we like to think that the people of California are a bit more clear-headed, healthier, less neurotic and "honester" than the poor people who subscribed $50,000 for the baseball evangelist.

RESOLUTION.

The German-American National Alliance meeting in San Francisco had something of a squabble over a note to the President, protesting against this country supplying the allies with ammunition.

An Oakland paper jumps at the chance to call the members of the organization "hyphenated would-be dictators." They are all but called traitors and the resolutions finally adopted are characterized as mendacions, illogical and neutrality violating.

This because the German-Americans declare the traffic in death machinery "a criminally pernicious traffic," that "millions of unhappy human beings are now cursing us and millions more will curse us in times to come"; that "by far the greatest blame for the Lusitania disaster attaches to the United Sttes."

Many who are not German-Americans may agree with the resolutions. But the present is no time for the German-Americens to adopt extravagant resolutions to send to the President of the United States.

Resolutions won't stop the manufacture of ammunition in this country. Resolutions won't make us forget the horror of the Lusitania slaughter. And resolutions adopted by men burning with indignation will help neither the writers nor the country of ther adopton.

OUTDONE.

Early reports of the war printed in the yellow papers of this country are utterly outclassed by papers recently received in London from Jerusalem. King George, according to one of these papers, was captured several months ago by a German Zeppelin that swooped over London, dropped a powerful magnet at the end of a long cable, gripped his majesty with it and dragged him aboard, white-faced and weeping.

In the same week, according to the paper, the Czar of Russia and President Poincaire of Frence were plucked from the earth by the crew of the same Zeppelin. Anohter paper, with a similar fine regard for the dramatic, reported German guns, mounted in Antwerp, were shelling London.

Hearst must feel himself outclassed.

HI NOTES

By SI.

The first student body meeting of the semester was held yesterday morning, with President Paul Follett and Vice President Ruth Adair presiding alternately. Both were received with much applause and handled the duties of the position with ease.

It was indeed an important subject which was handled as the first official business of the year. A few of the school leaders were in favor of raising the annual student body dues from $1 to $2. Two hours were spent in heated discussion.

Those in favor of the increase, who used the argument that the raise in price would eliminate the abominable candy and pie sales and other means of extortion and assessment, were Paul Follett, Clarence Brown, Reggie Biggs, Donald Gray, Ruth Adair, Ross McAllister, Hazel Downer and others.

Those who favored the more democratic price of 10 cents a month, or a dollar a year, were Holloway Jones, Abie Horvitz, Simeon Pierson, Doris McLarney and others.

On the motion of Robert Roundtree, the promising new athletic giant, the vote was taken by ballots, and resulted in a landslide for the opposition, 166 to 77. In other words, the student body dues will remain $1 a year.

* * *

Athletic Manager Abe Horvitz reported that Joseph Nicholl had again donated the use of a part of the tract of land opposoite the school for a football field for this season, on the condition that the boys were good swimmers.

In reply to Nicholl's question on that subject, Horvitz queried, "Can a duck swim?"

He is such a kidder, Abie is.

AT THE RICHMOND THEATRE TODAY

MARTHA HEDMAN NI "THE CUB" AT THE RICHMOND TODAY.

"The Cub," a real newspaper drama will hold the boards at the Richmond theater today and tomorrow. It is William A. Brady's greatest success and is from the studio of the World Film company, with John Hines playing the title role and Miss Dorothy Farnum is the maid. In addition to this play, the Vitagraph comedians are featured in "James Was Worth It," and there is the Essanay playlet, "The Secret Price."

In "The Cub," Martha Hedman is the lovely heroine of an exciting comedy which treats of the remarkable misadventures of a young newspaper reporter suddenly flung into the terrible turmoil of a Kentucky feud. He falls in love with one girl, and gets himself beloved by another. The girls belong to opposing families, and the result to poor little Steve, "The Cub," can be better imagined than described in a short newspaper paragraph.

John Hines, a finished and versatile young comedian, who has made several successes in World Film features, finds in the part of "The Cub" a vehicle for his rich and rollicking humor.

Rex Beach's Immortal Spoilers at the Lyric

"The Spoilers," eleven-reel dramatization of Rex Beach's masterful novel, a picture that shares with the "Clansman" the distinction of one of the two greatest film dramas ever produced, will be presented at the Lyric today and tomorrow. There will be a matinee both today and tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. and owing to the length of the program the evening performance will begin at 6:30 sharp.

It is needless in this limited space to say more of this great play. Everyone who has read Rex Beach's great masterpiece will want to see it in the films, and those who have seen the picture will not miss seeing it again. And any man, woman or child who has not had the good fortune to see it should not miss the opportunity at the Lyric today and tomorrow. Six months ago this picture turned people away in the big cities at 70 cents a seat. Today and tomorrow the very same film can be seen at the popular prices of the Lyric, 5 cents and 10 cents.

The scenic and photographic features of the picture are more than perfect. They are marvelous. In one scene an entire town is blown up. William Farnum portrays the great character of Glenister and Kathleen Williams plays Cherry Malotte. They are supported by an all star cast.

Men Become Independent

A great many men have in a year or two saved quite a lot of money. We know of men who two years ago on a pay night opened an account and pay day after pay day they have added to it until now they have a substantial balance. You can do the same thing by opening an account this pay day and by depositing every pay day you will be able to make quite a good investment in a year. Also remember that your money is drawing 4 per cent interest all the time it is in the bank.

KILLILAY WILL AGAIN OPPOSE ELKS

FINE BOXING CARD AT ARENA TONIGHT

Tonight's boxing show is assured of a good attendance by the appearance of Jack Davis, the fighting conductor. The fact that his opponent is to be Billie Alveras only piles up the number of boxing devotees, who will see what promises to be the best show of the series.

Davis is showing a big improvement over his form of the last fight. Of course experience he has had a world of, but his last few weeks' training has again given him his good judgment of distance, and his footwork is smoother. Davis is undoubtedly the cleverest and most experienced boxer that has exhibited under Kerby's arc light.

Alveras, his opponent, has been confining himself to training for weeks and is developing a punch, with which he hopes to break Davis' defense and put over a K. O.

Preliminaries to the main event are as follows: Kid Smiley vs. Dick Dixon; Al Mejia vs. Joe Gomes; Jimmie Duffy vs. Jimmie Keyrose, Mervyn Richmond vs. Frank Freitas; Ivey Johnson vs. Willie Cook.

WINEHAVEN TO PLAY CRYSTALS

Again the Winehavens promise to play on the Luce Park grounds for the entertainment of the stay-at-home fans. And again they have a first rate club to furnish the opposition. If somebody don't imbibe a glass of agua pura containing a run-out powder there may be a game.

The Crystals of San Francisco are the opposing team, and from the class of teams they have been playing in Marin and San Mateo counties, they sure are some scintillating crystals.

Pinkerton and Thurber will do the box work and Moss and Manager Offer will take care of them after they cross the rubber.

USES DAILY NEWS EXCLUSIVELY TO ADVERTISE SALE; BIG RESULTS

During the present week, the third week of the sale of A. A. Winfree's stock, under the management of J. P. Burke, the Daily News has been used exclusively for advertising.

The results, declares Mr. Burke, are remarkable. Yesterday the sales almost equaled the sales of the opening day.

Whenever it is tested the Daily News proves beyond a doubt that it can PULL RESULTS. Richmond can be well covered by the use of the Daily News exclusively, as Mr. Burke has proven.

HEALY SIGNS EX-SEAL FOR SUNDAY GAME

"Waterloo" Jack Killilay will pitch against Richmond again Sunday.

Such was the startling information received by Manager Luce of the Elks yesterday afternoon via telephone from Manager Healey in Petaluma. Killilay has been signed to play with the Sage Brush Hens, though for how long Healey does not state.

Healey further dispenses the info. that Babe Hollis will start the game for the Eggers, but that he has decided to use Killilay for the later frames.

S'nuf. The way to victory is now clear. But two or three innings against Hollis will be enough for the Elks to pile up sufficient runs to win a flock of games, and we further have a suspicion that Killilay will be no enigma for "our boys" in another game.

What Benham will do Sunday Healey does not state, but says that he will sure pitch against Richmond on the following Sunday, when they come here. He figures Richmond to be almost unbeatable on their own grounds this year, but will play his strongest card then.

"OOTS" FOR US.

"Ootsie" Schinkel will start for Richmond at Petaluma Sunday, but it is the present plan to use Burns for a few of the later frames.

Schinkel and Burns represent opposites in the hurling department of the Elks. Schinkel is young, unexperienced, depending on smoke and his own batting ability. Burns is seasoned, wise in baseball ways and players, and has a host of curves and tricks he can call to his assistance.

VERY POLITE IN DEFEAT

"Thanks!" The same to you," said Denny Healey and his bunch of Leghorns in the game with the Grayenstein lads in the chicken capital last Sunday.

"And many of them," thought Denny to Himself.

The Apple Boys got peeled to precisely the same extent that the Leghorns left epidemis in the Apple capital in the previous engagement, which same was 3 to 0.

The crowd was altogether too large for even standing accommodations in sight of the diamond, and there were seats for not more than 50 per cent of the crowd.

It was a good game and a fast game, and there is no question about the fact that Sebastopol outplayed the Petaluma team. But the break of the play went against the home team, and it was not the first time that this has spelled victory. The same thing would probably not happen in a score of seasons of playing.

Beat Wife, is Charge; Arrest Stege Resident

John H. McLean, bartender at the East Shore bar, Stege, was arrested yesterday by Officer Eigenman on a charge of wife beating. A $500 bond was furnished by Harry Record and T. J. Caron. The warrant was sworn to by his wife, formerly Mrs. "Gunboat" Smith, and was issued by Judge Lindsey.

This is not the first time McLean has been arrested on this charge. One time about eight months ago he shot at his wife, it is charged, in addition to beating her.

Mrs. McLean attributes his occasional actions to an injury received in his skull when kicked by a horse several years ago.

Over a hundred whist lovers and patriotic, middle loving people attended the highly successful whist party for the benefit of Richmond Day, which was held in the Richmond Club house last night. Nineteen tables were filled, but scores more bought tickets who were unable to attend. Over $25 was netted, which will be used to take Richmond's "Kiddies" to the "big show" tomorrow.

The prize winners for [illegible] Ladies' first, Mrs. [illegible]; second Mrs. H. W. Lunceford; gentlemen's, W. L. Bettenger, first; J. Eaton, second.
